2018 Competition's Judge

Jane Mudd is a Assistance Professor of Art at William Woods University in Fulton, Missouri. Jane lives on a farm outside Fulton with her husband Tom, and has three grown children.

She works in several medias and has a body of work that reflects many themes. "The subject of my next painting or project is usually dictated by my daily experiences and exposures. I look for opportunities and challenges and I'm curious. I feel strongly about the environment, women's issues, peace, and the importance of art in the world. I most often work directly from life but occasionally use other imagery for inspiration. Recently I pursued several opportunities for public art."

Judge's Critique: will be at 6:30 p.m. Friday, October 12, 2018
 All displaying artists & public welcome.

Purchase Awards: if available - a purchase award is a pledge by a company or individual to buy (at artist's asking price) a work of art during the show. The Raintree Arts Council will receive a 25% commission from work sold during the show. Selections for these purchases may be made by company representatives on Friday, October 12 from 4 to 6 p.m.
