"Little Shop of Horrors"

The Changelings theatre, under the aspecies of the Raintree Arts Council, is proud to announce the upcoming run of "Little Shop of Horrors". The show runs the last two weekends in March at the Ludwig Memorial theatre in Clarksville's Apple Shed Venue.

The show is a seemingly fun musical romp about a man-eating plant and the nerd that loves it! There are deeper messages: i.e.: the strength in the little guy and the inevitable downfall of the bully.

Raintree to Offer a Variety of Scholarships

Raintree Arts Council will be offering scholarships for Visual Arts, Performing Arts (music/theater), as well as Literary awards. These different scholarships are made possible by a variety of donations: Jamie McIlroy Memorial art supply award (in memory of Jamie, a long-time member and one of the founders of RAC), Miller Family scholarship, "For Arts Sake" made possible by Jon Moran and, new this year, Kathryn Washington Shipley/Ella Ruth Brown made possible by country music artist and Louisiana alum Kathryn Shipley.

All scholarships are available to Pike and Lincoln County students. We hope all schools will participate in this wonderful opportunity. When applying for any of these scholarships, please keep in mind, you should be majoring or minoring in the area you wish to apply.

The applications are on our website: www.raintreearts.org. Please send your discs or actual works to Cindy Logan, 1905 Georgia St., Louisiana, MO 63353 or via email to artlady52@att.net by April 1st. Each area will be judged by professionals in that area.

Show-Me Missouri State Chili Cookoff

TO BE HELD JUNE 8TH, 11-5 WITH THE GARDEN PARTY BAND AS ENTERTAINMENT

also other food and cold beverages will make the day.

There are a couple of changes for the year. NO MORE SALSA. The ICS (International Chili Society) has changed in that they do not consider salsa any type of chili therefore, instead of our traditional salsa we will have VEGGIE CHILI as a category. It is now also required to have an additional 2 gallons of Peoples Choice chili, which was our Anything Goes. This year a new category will be HOME-STYLE CHILI which has to be cooked on site and compete with others. So the day will have many more tastings of chili. CHILI VERDE AND COMPETITION RED are still the main events but we are happy that we still qualify as an ICS cookoff.

Think you have a chili good enough to win a trophy and prize money, bring it on! Contact me, Linda Blakey with questions. 573-754-0335

Come enjoy the day!
