Live Country Music at its Best!

“Patsy Cline: Her Music, Her Story”

The music of the legendary Patsy Cline is coming to the Raintree stage this June! In “Patsy Cline: Her Music, Her Story”, Debra Ingram will be performing songs of this great country music icon.

Debra has brought to the Raintree stage classic country music performances in the past, and many people have requested that she sing more Patsy Cline. With this show, she will be singing a wide variety of Patsy’s songs – of course her famous ones will be there (“Crazy”, “Walkin’ After Midnight”, “I Fall to Pieces” – to name a few) as well as some that are maybe not quite so famous. Throughout the evening, Debra will be giving the audience a glimpse into the life of the great country star, whose legend and fame continue to live on 55 years after her tragic death.

Two Performances!

“Patsy Cline: Her Music, Her Story” will have two performances on the stage of the Bowling Green High School Auditorium – Saturday, June 23, 2018 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, June 24, 2018 at 2 p.m. The doors will open one hour before each performance and tickets are $10.

- Mark your calendars now and plan to attend! You won’t want to miss it!! •

Desks of the Co-Presidents

Happy Spring to All - Finally!

What a fantastic turnout for Encore this year! Debbie and I appreciate all the hard work of our board members, Stacey and Bo Meers for their artistic help with decorations, our patron contributors to our silent auction, and of course to all of you who attended! Our wheels are already turning for next year’s Encore. Spring finally came this year and it looks like “June Will Be Busting Out All Over” fairly soon! Our next event is the Missouri State Chili Cook Off on June 9, 2018 at the Clarksville riverfront.

On June 23 (evening) and June 24 (afternoon), Raintree’s own “Patsy Cline” will be performing a concert that is a MUST SEE and will be sure to delight all who attend. See above for details.

We wish you all a “Happy Spring” and look forward to seeing you at our events! Thank you again and again for your support of the arts. It’s because of YOU that we can bring arts to Pike and Lincoln Counties.

In Appreciation

Judi Bruce & Debra Ingram
