RAINTREE ARTS COUNCIL AWARDS 2021 SCHOLARSHIPS

Each year the Raintree Arts Council awards a visual arts scholarship named the Jamie McIlroy Memorial Scholarship. It has come to our attention that perhaps the public needs to know who she was. Jamie McIlroy was a Clarksville artist and a founding member of the Raintree Arts Club. Raintree began with an art show at the four-way corner at Clarksville which featured Jamie, Bill Blakey (a Clarksville artist), Pat Kerns (at the time a Bowling Green artist, now a Hannibal artist), and Jerry Epperson (a Clarksville artist and musician NOW a world-famous musician). The group became official with an art show in 1973 at the Bowling Green Library during the sesquicentennial. In 1979, members of the Raintree Arts Club reached out to the community and Missouri Arts Council and RAINTREE ARTS COUNCIL was formed.

This year the Jamie McIlroy $500 supply award was awarded to Shelby Cohea who is the daughter of Mark and Lori Cohea. Shelby plans a career in art therapy.

Our second scholarship "For Arts Sake" was established and funded by Jon Moran (a Louisiana artist and long-time Arts Council volunteer and past RAC President). This year's awardee is Whitney Carroll, daughter of David Carroll.

From the Desk of the President

Hello members and friends,

I would like to begin by thanking Judi Bruce, who has tirelessly given her time and talents to Raintree Arts Council by serving as president for the past three years. I am grateful Judi will continue to serve as a board member and mentor as I navigate my new role as incoming president. We are thrilled to return to safely offering shows and concerts once again. We have a schedule that includes favorite events and new opportunities to experience the arts close to home.

Cornet Chop Suey will perform at the Apple

Shed in Clarksville on Saturday, September 25. They will also perform for students at Clopton High School and Louisiana High School. We would like to give a special thank you to Buffalo Township United Fund for their grant that helps Raintree Arts Council to provide school programs to students in Louisiana.

We look forward to seeing everyone in the coming months. Thank you for your support of the arts in Pike and Lincoln County!

Raintree Apple Shed Theatre News

Praise the Lord and pass the hand sanitizer! The Raintree Arts Council is proud to announce our upcoming slate of theatre productions. The Change-lings theatre company has been hard at work during the pandemic. Really! There is a lot of behind the scenes work that has been accomplished during this down time. We've been writing, organizing, and updating to better serve our community theatre audiences.

We are proud to announce a Pike county first: Shakespeare in the park! September 10-19, we'll be presenting Shakespeare's timeless classic, "Romeo and Juliet". This timeless romance focuses on modern issues, prejudice and violence. Shows will be presented on South Third Street, in front of the Grace Episcopal Church in downtown Clarksville. It is a bring your own lawnchair event, not to be missed. Please, put this one on your calendar as a do not miss!

Contact us at 817-300-9796 for tickets and info. See ya at the theatre!
